Meeting Notice

COMMUNITY PRESERVATION COMMITTEE

Date: Monday, August 20, 2018

Time: 6:30pm.

Place: Program Room in the Bourne Library

AGENDA

1. Applicant: Town Administrator's Advisory Committee on Pedestrian and Bicycle Pathways for $50,000 from the Community Preservation Fund (CPF) to provide a ground survey of the property and ten (10) per cent design plan of a Bike Path (technically called a Shared-Use-Plan) to provide a safe convenient shared path.
2. APPLICANT: The Bourne Affordable Housing Trust Fund & Bourne Housing Partnership. Request for $219,000 from the Community Preservation Fund with a project total cost of $640,000 (difference being made up from other public and private funding) to continue their goal of creating new affordable housing throughout the town focusing on purchasing deed restrictions for affordability on rental units in Downtown Buzzards Bay.
3. Discussion and possible vote on policy of the CPC that once CPA funds are awarded at a Town Meeting: the project must be started within a period of two (2) years...unless granted an extension by a majority vote of the CPC...the project will be considered null and void and the Applicant(s) will be notified of same.

For the Community Preservation Committee:

Barry H. Johnson, Chairman

TOWN CLERK BARRY H. JOHNSON
