QUESTION 1: What are the strengths and assets of Bourne Library?

What about the Library do you value the most and want to preserve for future generations and why? Think about spaces, programs, events, or traditions that contribute to the quality of life and make the library a great place to learn, grow and strengthen as a community. Consider where the Library is doing a good job having the biggest impact on the greatest number of residents.

Comment, and Why

QUESTION 2: What are the Library's challenges today and in the future?

How do the challenges impact life in Bourne? Where could the Library serve the community better, and why? Think about all aspects including educational, environmental, and social. Consider challenges that have town-wide impact, but also those that might disproportionately affect a certain group of residents.
